Join the fun and get your AKC Trick Dog Title or CGC! All Breed Trick Dog and CGC evaluators will be on site both days! They will be offering testing for Novice (TKN), Intermediate (TKI), Advanced (TKA) as well as Canine Good Citizen (CGC) and Canine Good Citizen Advanced (CGCA). Evaluation Fee is $10.00, proceeds go towards the draft test. If you would like more information, contact Deb Kern at newfandcardi@gmail.com

Note: NON NCA EVENT

Coffee and breakfast snacks will be provided for entrants, judges and stewards on the morning of the tests. Each entrant is entitled to one lunch. Additional lunches are available for purchase at $5.00 each. Please let me know at check in if you would like to purchase an extra lunch.

There will be no formal practice on Friday however, the test site is open to the public and you may practice 7am-9pm any day before the test. There will be no course set up. Parking fees apply. Please observe the park's on leash policy.

Bitches in season are allowed to participate however, they will be tested after ALL other exhibitors have been tested. Please let the test secretary know before you unload your dog if she is in season. If you let me know in advance, that would be appreciated. I can be reached at 559-341-8074 or amycanzano@yahoo.com

There will be a PNNC membership meeting and dinner hosted by the club following the draft test on Saturday May, 18th. Everyone is welcome and hope you will join us and visit with fellow exhibitors and your judges. The dinner will be held at the test site.
